

Did You Know? An Anglican Glossary

Lenten Array

From Passion Sunday, that before Palm Sunday, altar crosses, processional crosses and all religious images are covered with purple cloth "because after that time the Divinity of Christ was hidden and concealed in Him."¹

Left above, the altar cross can be seen dimly through the veil, and left below the cross, pictures and a processional cross are veiled.

¹ William Durandus